I am painfully aware of our current economic crisis, and how it's affecting us all. So to try to make the rally more affordable, I am pricing Spank $150 below the 2008 fee. I think this makes it by far the best deal in Multi-Day Rallying in 2010!

Ideally, everyone would pay the full fee at sign-up, but I know for some of you that's just not possible by the end of the year. So below, please choose the payment option that best suits your situation, and remember that any funds sent to the rally are non-refundable. Please note that options 2 and 3 will incur an additional fee of $50 and $75 respectively.

Rally fees:

Single Rider entry: $450.00

Couples entry: $625.00

(PLEASE circle which option you're choosing)

Option 1- Pay in Full with sign-up by December 1st, 2009

Option 2- Pay a $150 deposit by December 1st, 2009, with a remaining balance of $350 for single or $525 for couples, due by March 1st, 2010.

Option 3- Pay a $100 deposit by December 1st, 2009, with a remaining balance of $425 for single or $600 for couples, due by April 1st, 2010.

If you choose Option 3 and later find you can afford Option 2, you are absolutely entitled to the fee reduction of $25.

If you STILL need a different payment schedule than the ones above, let's talk. Any funds sent to the Rally are non-refundable. Period. No exceptions, so it's best to be sure about your participation before signing up.

PAYPAL INSTRUCTIONS

If using Paypal, send payment/s to george@georgezelenz.com and BE SURE to use the "personal" tab in Paypal to avoid me getting dinged the transaction fee.

Ya dig? Sho nuff.

By signing below, you acknowledge that you understand the following:

1. Motorcycling is DANGEROUS, and that this Rally will exacerbate all danger either known or unknown to the Rally, it's riders, and any and all affiliates.

2. You will be required in the coming months to sign two waivers of liability before you are allowed to participate. One needs to be notarized and returned before the rally, and the second one just before the beginning of the rally.

These waivers will severely limit you, and your families ability to bring legal action against the Spank Rally, it's organizers, volunteers, and it's employees and officers. You can see the waiver before you send the entry. Upon request I will send you a copy.

If you refuse the waivers, you will not be allowed to participate, and no fees will be refunded to you.
